Abstract

Globalization dominated in the last decade of the twentieth century and the eve of the third millennium over economic, politics, psychology, culture, communications and information sciences, it's a historical phenomenon refer to many important transitions in humanitarian life. It focuses on that state has illusion its historical role in the psychologist, economic and political buildings.

Globalization issue and its influence in North Korea put a spotlight on political, economic and cultural situations, the political system resists any change with many limitations on political freedoms, human rights and political multiplicity. Liberalism trends and free market are so weakened when it comparing within the bad economic situation of the country, which is still need food and foreign currency, for all that make liberalism, partnership with foreign investment one of the most important solutions to overcome economic crises which began since two decades.
